15. Participants will be hosted by the Adelaide Strikers supporting staff, facilitating the clinic.
16. The promoter's decision in respect of all matters to do with the activation, and the decision of the judging panel, will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.
17. By entering this competition, a participant and/or their legal guardian is indicating their agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.
18. You are providing your information to SACA and not to any other party. The information provided will be managed in accordance with SACA's privacy policies.
19. The promoter and the Prize Provider and each of their associated agencies and companies will not be liable for any loss (including, without limitation, indirect, special or consequential loss or loss of profits), expense, damage, personal injury or death which is suffered or sustained (whether or not arising from any person's negligence) in connection with this activation or accepting or using any prize, except for any liability which cannot be excluded by law (in which case that liability is limited to the maximum extent permitted by law).

20. A prize winner has rights under the Australian Consumer Law and other similar legislation which cannot be excluded, restricted or modified by the promoter or Prize Provider. These rights include a statutory guarantee that any services provided by the promoter and the Prize Provider will be rendered with due care and skill and that any goods supplied will be of acceptable quality. These terms and conditions do not exclude, restrict or modify those statutory rights in any way. However, to the extent it is permitted by law to do so, the promoter and the Prize Provider make no representations or warranties, express or implied, other than those contained within the Australian Consumer Law, regarding the quality and suitability of any prize, and will not be responsible for breach of any such terms.
