Prize Provider	Heritage and People's Choice Limited (trading as People First Bank) (ABN 11 087 651 125)
Entry Requirements	Entry is only open to South Australian Cricket Clubs and residents who are registered female players at a South Australian Cricket Club and have been nominated and selected to participate in the Competition on behalf of the relevant Club and have agreed to do so, with those players to compete in a relay event, as detailed below.
Ineligible Entrants	Staff/employees of SACA (and their immediate families) and any entities otherwise associated with running this Competition or administering any prize(s) are ineligible to enter.
Competition Period	Registration for the Competition is open from Monday 19 October at 9:00am ACDT and closes on Friday 23 October at 5:00pm ACDT.
Entry Method	A South Australian Cricket Club may nominate and select three (3) registered Club players to participate in the Competition and compete in a designated relay event for and on behalf of the relevant Club. To do so, Clubs must complete a registration form via https://forms.cloud.microsoft/r/NR4R9g7b2H. All participating Club players must have voluntarily agreed to participate, including having agreed to these terms and conditions. Clubs selected to participate in the Competition will be notified by a SACA representative no less than seven (7) days from the relevant WBBL match at which the Club's nominated team / representatives will compete. Selected Clubs' nominated teams must compete in relevant notified relay stages and rounds as set out in the section below addressing 'Selection and notification of winners'.
Maximum Number of Entries	One entry per South Australian Cricket Club.
Total prize pool	Cash prize of $5,000.00 for the winning South Australian Cricket Club (with the prize to be granted to and for the benefit of the Club and not individual entrants and participants).

Selection and notification of winners	The winning Club will be the Club whose relay team: • is selected to compete in the Competition (per the Entry Method); • successfully completes the notified required relay stages in the fastest time and prior to the opposing competing relay team(s) The winning Club will be notified immediately by SACA staff at the match on completion of the final relay round on Sunday 29 November. The prize and winning Club's details (including names of the successful team participants) will be published or displayed on the Adelaide Strikers Instagram and Facebook accounts and the Adelaide Strikers website for at least seven (7) days.
Prize delivery	The winning Club will be issued their prize money via EFT from People First Bank. If the winning Club is unable or unwilling to accept and claim and participate in the prize as stated, or has not claimed the prize by the confirmation date specified above, the winner will be deemed ineligible and will forfeit the prize. The prize cannot be exchanged or substituted. The prize is not transferable.

Conditions of Entry

1. These Conditions of Entry must be read together with the Schedule and any entry instructions or other notices given by SACA, which are deemed to form part of these Conditions of Entry. By entering the Competition, entrants accept and agree to these Conditions of Entry.
2. SACA reserves the right to cancel or amend the Competition and these terms and conditions without notice. Any changes to the Competition will be notified to entrants as soon as possible by the Promoter.
3. Entry is open to Clubs and persons who comply with the Entry Requirements. Entries from Ineligible Entrants or where there is other non-compliance with the Entry Requirements will not be accepted and will be void.
4. Entrants must follow the Entry Method to be eligible. The Maximum Number of Entries must be complied with. SACA accepts no responsibility for late, lost or misdirected entries (or entries not received for any reason).
5. By entering the Competition, individual entrants give consent for SACA to use their contact details for the various purposes outlined in SACA's privacy collection notice in clause 17 of these Conditions of Entry. As some of those purposes, such as direct marketing, will apply irrespective of the award of any prize, SACA encourages individual entrants to review clause 17 before entering.
6. SACA reserves the right, at any time during or after the Competition Period, to verify the validity of entries and entrants (including Club status for Clubs and for participating individuals their identity, Club registration, age and place of residence) and to disqualify any entrant who tampers with the entry process or who submits an entry that is not in accordance with these Terms and Conditions of Entry. The Promoter reserves the right to request proof of compliance at its discretion.

7. Club prize winners will be selected using the process described in the Schedule. The Competition is a game of skill. Club prize winners will be notified by the notification method described in the Schedule.
8. If any Club prize winner rejects a prize for any reason or does not claim its prize in accordance with the notification, the Schedule or other instructions issued by SACA, the prize will be forfeited.
9. The prizes are as stated and no substitutions or other alternatives will be offered. Prizes are not transferable. SACA and the Prize Provider are not responsible for inaccurate prize details supplied to any entrant by any third party.
10. Individual entrants participating in the Competition consent to SACA and the Prize Provider using their name, likeness, image and/or voice (including as a photograph, film, video and/or sound recording) in any media for an unlimited period without remuneration or compensation or royalty for the purpose of promoting this Competition (including any outcome) and promoting any products, services, programs and/or events of SACA and/or the Prize Provider.
11. It is also a condition of entering and participating in the Competition that:
    a. Individual entrants and participants must agree to a legal acknowledgement and release in favour of SACA and the Prize Provider and any terms and conditions relating to participation in the Competition, available here: https://www.adelaidestrikers.com.au/competitions
    b. Individual entrants and participants agree that they participate in the Competition at their own risk and voluntarily assume the risks of participation (which may include, without limitation, injury or death caused by ball strike, collision with other persons or equipment, trips or falls or equipment malfunction);
    c. Individual entrants and participants comply with all terms and conditions of entry into the Venue of the relevant match in which they compete in the Competition and any Cricket Australia terms and conditions relating to attendance at the match will apply and must be strictly complied with in attending the match and in participating in the Competition; and
    d. Individual entrants and participants wear their full T20 kit (Club cap, coloured shirt and pants), plus all relevant and appropriate equipment (pads, helmet and bat) for the leg/stage of the relay where participants must run between the wickets (and any other safety equipment reasonably directed).

    If a winning Club and all of its competing individual entrants and participants do not comply with the requirements of this clause 11 the prize will be forfeited.
12. If this Competition is interfered with in any way, is not capable of being conducted as reasonably anticipated due to any reason beyond the reasonable control of the Promoter or Prize Provider or if the administration, security, fairness, integrity or proper conduct of this Competition is affected for any reason, SACA reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to the fullest extent permitted by law (a) to disqualify any entrant; or (b) subject to any written directions from a regulatory authority, to modify, suspend, terminate, cancel, suspend or change the Competition, as appropriate.
13. SACA may disqualify any Club or participating individual who has, in SACA's opinion, engaged in conduct which is fraudulent, misleading or generally damaging to the reputation of SACA, Cricket Australia or the Prize Provider or has breached these Conditions of Entry.

14. Errors and omissions may be accepted at SACA's discretion. Any failure or omission by SACA to enforce any of its rights at any stage does not constitute a waiver of those rights.
15. SACA and the Prize Provider accept no responsibility for any tax implications that may arise from a Club winning any prize (and independent financial advice should be sought).
16. This Competition is in no way sponsored, endorsed, or administered by, or associated with, Facebook, X, Instagram, TikTok or any other social media platform. Individual entrants and participants are providing their information (including personal information) to SACA not to Meta (as the operator of the Facebook and Instagram platforms) and the operator of any other applicable social media platform. The information provided to SACA will be managed in accordance with SACA's privacy collection notice which appears in clause 17 of these Conditions of Entry and SACA's Privacy Policy available on SACA's website (https://www.saca.com.au).
17. All entries remain the property of SACA. By entering, individual entrants give consent for SACA to use their contact details for the various purposes outlined in SACA's privacy collection notice in this clause 17 of these Conditions of Entry and SACA's Privacy Policy. SACA collects any individual entrants' personal information in order to conduct:
    a. the Competition, including determining eligibility to participate, selecting prize winners and facilitating the distribution of prizes (Current Competition Purposes); and
    b. direct marketing of the goods, services and events of SACA and/or third party providers, including but not limited to direct mail, email and SMS campaigns (Direct Marketing Purposes). If the personal information requested is not provided, the entrant cannot participate in the Competition. SACA may disclose personal information collected for Current Promotion Purposes to its service providers in relation to administering the promotion, and to other providers in order to facilitate the delivery of the prizes. SACA is not likely to disclose personal information to overseas recipients.

    Each individual entrant agrees that SACA may use their personal information to undertake the Current Promotion Purposes and to use their personal information to undertake the Direct Marketing Purposes. Individual entrants may withdraw their consent to the use of their personal information for Direct Marketing Purposes at any time by email to aguy@saca.com.au or using the unsubscribe function in any email or SMS. SACA's Privacy Policy is available on SACA's website (https://www.saca.com.au) and contains information about how an individual may access or seek correction of the personal information held about them or complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles and how such a complaint may be dealt with.
18. SACA's decision in respect of all matters relating to the Competition and determination(s) as to prize winners and prizes will be final and binding. SACA will not enter into any correspondence.
19. Nothing in these Conditions of Entry limits, excludes or modifies (or purports to limit, exclude or modify) any statutory consumer guarantees or any guarantee or implied condition or warranty the exclusion of which would contravene any statute or cause any part of these Conditions of Entry to be void. Except for any liability that cannot be excluded by law, SACA and the Prize Provider (including any officers, employees and agents) exclude all liability (including for negligence) for any death or personal injury, property damage, or any other loss or damage (including loss of opportunity), whether direct, indirect, special or consequential, arising in any way out of the Competition, including, but not limited to, where arising out of the following: (a) participation in the Competition; (b) any technical difficulties or equipment malfunction (whether or not under SACA's control); (c) any theft, unauthorised access or third party interference; (d) any entry or prize claim that is late, lost, altered, damaged or misdirected (whether or not after their receipt by SACA) due to any reason beyond the reasonable control of SACA; (e) any taxation implications; and/or (f) a prize or use of a prize by a prize winner.
20. The Conditions of Entry constitute the entire agreement between the Promoter, Prize Provider and entrant and will be governed by the laws of South Australia. If any part of the Conditions of Entry is held to be invalid or unenforceable, it will be severed and will not affect the remainder, which will continue in full force and effect.
